Terms & Conditions

All cats boarding at Midsomer Pet Lodge must be vaccinated against at least Feline Respiratory Disease (flu) and Feline Enteritis. These vaccinations must be completed at least four weeks prior to boarding and annual vaccinations must be up to date. The vaccination record must produced on admittance and will be held by the cattery for the duration of the stay.

In the event of the cat developing an infectious or contagious disease Midsomer Pet Lodge are authorised to remove the animal in to specialist care at the owners expense.

No responsibility is taken for loss, escape or sickness of any cat whilst at the cattery or during the transport to and from there or for any of the owner's property which is brought with the cat(s). In the event of any cat becoming ill and needing veterinary treatment all cost incurred are the responsibility of the owner. All boarding fees and expenses which may arise must be paid before the cat(s) leave the cattery. In the event of any cat not being collected and the boarding fees due not being paid within a reasonable period, the cats(s) will be considered as abandoned.

Any current or ongoing problems with a cat's health or temperament must be disclosed at the time of booking. We reserve the right to refuse admission for any animal we consider to be of an unreliable temperament or sick at the start of boarding.

Cats should be up to date with worm and flea treatments and in the event of a cat requiring treatment a charge will be made.

All cats staying at Midsomer Pet Lodge must be neutered.

In event of the cat being unwell we reserve the right to contact your stated vet.

Arriving and leaving the cattery all cats must be secured in a proper carrier.

Telephone bookings must be followed up by a booking form and deposit within seven days to secure the booking.

Cancellations must be advised of as soon as possible. Deposits will be forfeited if cancellations are made later than 10 days prior to booked date of arrival

If you are unable to collect your cat on the agreed date of departure please inform us as soon as possible as other bookings may be affected.

If you have any queries regarding any of the above matters please contact us.
